

Please do not allow the consolidation of our media outlets progress any further than it already has.

I urge you to reconsider further deregulation. It is killing the culture of our airwaves and is a disservice to our communities.